

The Snowman

It was nearly Christmas.

Katie woke up and found that the world was white and magical.

"Snow," she shouted, "snow for Christmas."

She ran outside and danced in the snow.

Her brother Mike came out too.

They made a big round snowball and a small one.

They put them together and made a huge snowman.

On Christmas Eve they looked at the snowman.

He waved at them. He was alive!

"Hello," he said, "it's Christmas. Would you like a present?"

"Yes please!"

The snowman waved his arms.

Silver crystal snowflakes filled the sky. It was so beautiful.

"We must give you a present too," said Katie.

They gave the snowman a carrot for a nose, a scarf for his neck, and a hat for his head.

"Happy Christmas!" they said.

The snow stopped and the sun came out.

The snowman started to melt.

"Goodbye," he said. "Build me again next year!"
